

The Wisconsin Law Review is seeking topic proposals for its Fall 2012 Symposium. We encourage submissions on any relevant legal issue.

Topic proposals should be limited to no more than 2,000 words. In addition, topic proposals should include the names of anticipated authors/participants and explain the relevance of the legal issue. Please submit any topic proposals to WLRsymposium@gmail.com by February 20, 2012.

The Wisconsin Law Review looks forward to continuing its tradition of engaging with diverse symposium topics. A list of past symposia topics can be found at <http://wisconsinlawreview.org/symposium> (scroll to bottom of page).

Please feel free to contact us with any questions.

Sincerely,
Liz Sanger and Nate Inglis Steinfeld, Symposium Editors
